Mr. Browne’s precepts play an important part in Wonder. In addition to his precepts, Auggie and his classmates offer some of their own over the summer. I want you to think about what your precept might be. Here are some examples from the book.

- “When given the choice between being right or being kind, choose kind.” —Dr. Wayne Dyer
- “Your deeds are your monuments.” —Inscription on ancient Egyptian tomb
- “Have no friends not equal to yourself.” —Confucius
- “Fortune favors the bold.” —Virgil
- “No man is an island, entire of itself.” —John Donne
- “It is better to know some of the questions than all of the answers.” —James Thurber
- “Kind words do not cost much. Yet they accomplish much.” —Blaise Pascal
- “Everyone deserves a standing ovation because we all overcometh the world.” —Auggie Pullman
- “Courage. Kindness. Friendship. Character. These are the qualities that define us as human beings, and propel us, on occasion, to greatness.” —Mr. Tushman
- “It’s not enough to be friendly. You have to be a friend.” —Charlotte
- “We carry with us, as human beings, not just the capacity to be kind, but the very choice of kindness.” —Mr. Tushman

I AM EXCITED TO SEE WHAT YOURS WOULD BE.

Mine might be something like – “Be Bold, Pink and stand tall like a flamingo (even if you feel a little off balance).” Mrs Hinton
