

WORLD BOOK DAY/WEEK

On the week beginning 29/2/16 we will be having a whole book week dedicated to celebrating books and reading. Pupils will be asked to have a book with them at ALL times and when a bell rings they will stop their activity, sit down and read until the next bell. I would ask pupils to bring suitable books chosen via the I-Pick method (also encourage them not to have big books).

For homework, I will be setting a task of extreme reading again where I will ask for photos of pupils reading in the most extreme places and there will be a prize for the most "extreme".

I will also be asking for pupils to bring their favourite book with them on Thursday and to be able to tell the class what it is, who wrote it, a brief synopsis and maybe a favourite quote/phrase.

Pupils will be asked to dress up for fun on Friday as their favourite character from a book.

Mrs H

WORLD BOOK DAY/WEEK

On the week beginning 29/2/16 we will be having a whole book week dedicated to celebrating books and reading. Pupils will be asked to have a book with them at ALL times and when a bell rings they will stop their activity, sit down and read until the next bell. I would ask pupils to bring suitable books chosen via the I-Pick method (also encourage them not to have big books).

For homework, I will be setting a task of extreme reading again where I will ask for photos of pupils reading in the most extreme places and there will be a prize for the most "extreme".

I will also be asking for pupils to bring their favourite book with them on Thursday and to be able to tell the class what it is, who wrote it, a brief synopsis and maybe a favourite quote/phrase.

Pupils will be asked to dress up for fun on Friday as their favourite character from a book.

Mrs H

